"ON TO GEORGETOWN," SLOGAN

TURKEY DAY BATTLE WITH HILLTOPPERS

Contest to Start at 2 O'Clock at American League Park.

ODDS AGAINST LOCALS

May Upset Dope by Downing Exendine's Crew—Quigleyites Thirsting for Revenge.

George Washington's Minute Men, the wearers of the Buff and Blue, meet Exendine's wrecking crew in the last contest of the 1922 season for the Hatchetites, Thursday at 2 o'clock at the American League Park, Seventh and Florida Avenue N. W.

Last year the Hilltoppers were forced to resort to an air attack to down the locals by four touchdowns, and the home squad is thirsting for revenge this year.

November 26 to December 2 is safety week in the District of Columbia. "Don't Get Hurt!" is the way the street signs put it, and from Captain Comstock down to the Blue and Gray's waterboy the entire Georgetown team is planning to avoid being hurt in order to keep in shape for their contest against the great Lafayette machine on Saturday, December 2.

G. W.'s eleven are in fine shape with their rest of last Saturday, and can be banked upon to put up a great game. It will be the strongest lineup which has yet taken the field for the Buff and Blue. Only Pryor will be unable to play, he being out with four broken ribs, received in scrimmage.

May Win Against Odds.

Most of the Hilltoppers' crimples have been released from the hospital list and will be able to play Thursday. The team came through the hard game Saturday, in which they were held to a scoreless tie by Boston College, in fine shape.

On paper Georgetown has considerable odds on George Washington, but football is a peculiar game, full of reverses and changes of form. Harvard beat Yale when the odds were 3 to 2 against them. Brown beat Harvard with the odds against them, and Detroit did the same for Washington and Jefferson. Therefore, it will not be unprecedented to see the lighter, lesser experienced Quigleyite eleven give the G. U. team the game of their lives Turkey Day.

EVERYBODY OUT TO SHOW SPIRIT IN SAFETY PARADE

"Remember the fate of G. W.'s Ghost—Play Safe" will be the warning hung around the neck of a real live ghost, who will be one of the features of the G. W. float in the Safety Campaign parade on Friday. The float is expected to be one of the best in the big parade, and the Ghost is only one of the numerous surprises, according to Henry James, in charge.

Come One! Come All! is the slogan that will make G. W.'s participation a success. All school-spirited students are requested to meet in Lisner Hall at 9.30 this Friday. Don't forget!

Henry H. James has charge of the group that will represent George Washington.

NOTICE!

All members of the Red Cross Life Saving Corps in the University are asked to meet at Peace Monument at 11.30, December 1, to participate in the Safety First Parade.

GIRL SWIMMERS TRY-OUT

Try-outs for positions on the girls' swimming team will be held at the Y. W. C. A. pool Saturday night, December 9, from 6 to 7 p. m. The try-outs will be held every Saturday for six weeks, when the team will be chosen.

Permits must be obtained from Dr. Borden, at the Rochambeau, before the try-outs. All girls interested in swimming are urged to come out for the team.

PYRAMID SOCIETY URGES COMPULSORY STUDENT TAX

Advices Dropping of Activities Unless
More Support is Secured.

The Pyramid Honor Society, at its meeting November 26, adopted a resolution recommending the "discontinuance of the Student Activities unless the compulsory activity tax is instituted in George Washington University.

The members of the society were unanimous in the belief that the present state of student activities could not continue under the existing voluntary tax scheme.

"Pyramid decided that immediate steps should be taken to remedy this situation. The president of the University and other officials will be interviewed; letters will be sent to the various legislative fraternal bodies, soliciting their views. In the next issue of the Hatchet will appear statements from Pyramid members, depicting the conditions of the various activities," according to C. Melville Walker, secretary.

DECEMBER 5, STUDENT COUNCIL MEETS

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Student Council will be held Tuesday, December 5, in Lisner Hall, at 8 o'clock.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL SQUAD BEGINS INTENSIVE WORK

Because of the large number of candidates for the girls' basketball squad it is necessary to hold extra practice. The entire squad will report to the gymnasium at Holton Arms, on Church Street, between Seventeenth and Eighteenth Streets. Two groups will be formed, one to practice on Monday and the other on Wednesday nights.

All candidates are asked to have a physical examination by Dr. D. L. Borden, at the Rochambeau, before reporting. Coach Martha McGrew asks that all girls interested come out for practice.

A cheering section will be organized and placed in charge of competent leaders. The first game will be December 16, with the Wilson Normal.

DISTRICT CHAMPIONSHIP TO BE SETTLED NOV. 30

Neither Team Rates High—Contest to Be Letter Game.

Besides being a "grudge fight," the football game Thanksgiving Day has the championship of the District at stake.

Dispite the fact that neither team may rate very highly in either Eastern or South Atlantic circles, it is recognized that Georgetown has a very strong team.

George Washington has defeated Gallaudet 9-6, and Catholic University 14-7, and Georgetown is the only obstacle to the championship of the District.

By recent action of the Student Council every man who gets into the gridiron classic Turkey Day will be awarded the coveted G. W.

According to Coach Bill Quigley, every man that gets into the fray will truly represent the University. "Every man is expected and will give his all to the contest."

CROWD WILL BE LIMITED TO THREE HUNDRED

First Event on Social Calendar
Promises to be the Best.

SURPRISES AT MIDNIGHT

Tables Reserved at Child's for Hungry
Ones After Party.

The Football Hop, the annual festival and dance in honor of the Buff and Blue Football Team, will be held this year at the City Club on Friday night, December 8, from 10 p. m. until 2 a. m. This party is the first event on the official social calendar, and plans have been made to stage an affair commensurate with the size and prestige of the University.

The music for the hop will be furnished by nine pieces of Meyer Davis' best, which will play from 10 until 1. At 1 the highly touted and justly famous "Le Paradis" Orchestra will appear to play until the end of the dance.

At midnight there will be a short intermission to allow time for the presentation of the letters and sweaters to the members of the team. This ceremony will be short and penny, with possibly the addition of certain carefully-guarded stunts arranged as an entire innovation. Punch will be served throughout the evening.

The sale of tickets is well under way. The admission price is at the extremely low rates of three dollars per couple, with the stags paying two dollars for the privilege of promiscuous cuts, a rare time and a chance to beat the taxi fares.

Only a certain number of tickets will be sold. This method has been adopted to avoid overcrowding and last minute rush. After the allotted number is disposed of there will be small chance of securing a pass to this Hop of Hops. The tickets are now available at the treasurer's office, in Woodhull Building, 2033 G Street, at the Law School office, and at the Medical School office.

Earle Manson, chairman of the committee on arrangements, urges that the students get their tickets soon. "It would be a shame," says he, "to awake the morning of the dance and realize that you not only had not bought your ticket, but that you had small chance of getting one. Of course, lamentations would be in order, but how would you explain your neglect to that femme of yours, who had bought a new black dress, with poinsettia trimmings, had her hair marcelled, and had hardly slept for thinking about the good time she expected to have. Think of the music. Meyer Davis at his best, and then the Paradisiacs. Your tickets are cheap. They are being sold."

At the close of the dance the crowd is expected to adjourn to the usual rendezvous, Child's. With this in mind, the committee has reserved several tables for the use of the frolickers.

G. W. TEACHERS START TWO EXTENSION CENTERS

Two extension school centers have been established under the auspices of the Teachers' College, one at Alexandria, Va., and the other at Upper Marlboro, Md. At Alexandria, Professor Moss is conducting a class in Educational Psychology, and Professor Sullivan a class in Educational Theory at Upper Marlboro. There was an extension school conducted last year at Rockville, and taught jointly by Dean Ruediger and Professor Moss.

At the present time the majority of those enrolled in these schools are teachers. The tuition is the same as regular tuition rates at George Washington, and registration is handled in the same way as with the other George Washington students. Entrance requirements for students working for a degree are identical with those of the various branches of the University.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 30, 1922

On To Georgetown

Our men go into the most important football game of the season to-day. According to all the athletic dopesters the odds are tremendously against us. This means nothing though in view of the remarkable results of some of the previous games of this season. Practically all the dope issued by the "wise men" of athletics has been upset.

It is the team with the "pep" and punch that always wins the victory. It is the student body with "pep" and punch enough to get out and support their team that is always on the winning side. It is up to every student in the school, every loyal supporter of George Washington University, to come to the game to-day and cheer the Buff and Blue with all the spirit that he can muster. It is up to the team to fight until it has humbled our ancient rival—Georgetown.

Watch Your Step

G. W. has been requested to participate in the Safety Week exercises to be held Friday. Dean Miller of the Engineering College, is in charge of all the preparations. There will be a parade, and all students are asked to march in the G. W. section. With all the expert Ford drivers that attend this school and their almost uncanny ability to successfully drive through the most difficult passages and park in the smallest places, it would seem that we do not need to observe such a week.

Leaving all of that aside, however, the number of injuries and deaths due to carelessness on the part of both drivers and pedestrians of this city is appalling. Every man and woman here should give serious thought to the observance of this week and do everything in his or her power to prevent the necessity of another one.

Make Them Pay It

The recent action of the Pyramid Honor Society, a society composed of the University's most prominent students, in regard to a compulsory tax for the maintenance of Student Activities, bring up the old question as to the advisability of such a tax. The President of the University has declared that he is in favor of having every student join some activity. These activities can not be properly financed without some form of compulsory tax. Surely the president will be in favor of a measure that will insure the livelihood and efficiency of these organizations he has supported.

It would not be necessary to institute a compulsory tax of ten dollars. There are approximately five thousand students enrolled in this University. A tax of five dollars a year would put twenty-five thousand dollars into the Student Activity Treasury. This amount would fully finance Student Activities. This amount is absolutely necessary to the life of Student Activities. Who ever heard of Center College until their Student Activities put that school on the educational map? No one. Do we want George Washington University to enjoy the same distinction? You bet we do.

MARGARET BREWER

Margaret Brewer, manager of Girls' Basketball, graduated from Miss Eastman's School in 1919. Entered George Washington in the fall of the same year. Won the tennis cup in the Girls' Championship Matches in 1920, and again in 1921. Was assistant manager of Basketball in 1921 and 1922. Won her letter in basketball in 1919-20, 1920-21, and 1921-22. Member of Phi Mu Society.

BERNARD VIENS

Bernard Viens, president of the Senior Class, graduated from the Holy Family High School of New Bedford, Mass., in 1919. Studied at Catholic University two years. Came to G. W. U. in the fall of 1921. Assistant manager of tennis in 1921, and manager in 1922. Member of Kappa Sigma Fraternity.

THE SPY

Garrick.

Manager Taylor is doing himself well in offering for next week Vivian Martin in "Just Married." The play is one of the hits of the last two seasons, and played 65 weeks in New York, while Chicago held it for six months. It is a delightful comedy, woven around a pair of newly-weds, and the situations offer many laughs and much amusement. Miss Martin is supported by Lynne Overman and a capable cast. This comedy comes with good references and should be well received by Washington audiences.

National.

The new rebuilt National gets well underway next week when Henry Miller and Ruth Chatterton come to town in Henry Battelle's "La Tendresse." The work of Miss Chatterton and Mr. Miller is too well known to need comment, and is ever a delight to the audience. The new play gives full play to their abilities and proves an evening of excellent entertainment. The opening is on Monday night, as Burton Holmes travel films have the house for Sunday evening.

Poli's.

Poli's next week offers us a change from melodrama, comedy, and the rest of the program of plays that has been offered Washington so far this season. The San Carlos Opera Company comes to that house on Monday, and during the week will present in order "Aida," "Butterfly," "Tales Hoffman," "La Boheme," "Cavalleria and Pagliacci," "La Traviata," "Jewels of the Madonna," and "Carmen." The company is capable, and this should be a treat for lovers of the opera.

President.

The Presidents go into their second week with "Abie's Irish Rose," and it seems that this delightful sure-fire comedy will hold that house until all of Washington has seen it. The company is doing excellent work and keeping the audience laughing continuously from curtain to curtain. Henry Duffy plays as Abie and Eileen Wilson is his Irish Rose.

This Week.

Garrick: We did not think Fay Bainter was capable of the excellent emotional work she is doing this week in "The Painted Lady." This new play by Monkton Hoffe is a marvel of technique and of excellent character drawing. The elements that make a play utterly enjoyable to the casual theater-goer are for the most part lacking, but for those who love real technique and superb character work,

STUD SLAVE SAYS:

There's many G. W. "Second Best" that'll go out with her on Thanksgiving Day that wouldn't have if Navy hadn't lost. The brass buttoned opposition, you see, is quite broke owing to the fall of their idols.

The Frosh were so quiet Friday night that some Seniors had to take it on themselves to enliven things as best they could for the disporting Sophs.

The price of nice, ripe eggs may have had its own little effect on quieting the gentle Frosh.

Well, the ladies can roller for their equal rights all they want, and perhaps get it, but there will still be only a few of them who can grow beards.

Evidently someone of the Freshmen hired the orchestra that the Sophs had at their mixer.

Co-ed Stuff.

Co-ed: "—and his eyes are wondering, big and limpid like a cow's." Another: "Yes, and when he starts that line of his I always think of the cow's husband."

Reds Haynes was galloping across the stadium in front of Lisner Hall the other day with two doughnuts clutched in his hand, and one of the

it can not be surpassed. A touching play of a little circus lady and a painting. We recommend it.

National: H. B. Warner continues to thrill them with "Bull-dog Drummond," a melodrama of the mellowest sort. Gives an evening of shivers and thrills in the splendid new theater.

Approved. Poli's opens with "Hayseed," a musical satire of rural melodrama. Delightful musical comedy in which the most is made of the possibilities of satire and humor. Approved.

President: "Abie's Irish Rose," a direct contrast from the tears of "Smilin' Through." Leo Hoyt as the Jewish poppa and Robert Lowe as the Irish dad, take comedy honors. The guarantee of a laugh a minute is fulfilled. Recommended.

ENOSINIAN TO CELEBRATE CENTENNIAL DECEMBER 11

Banquet at University Club for Hundredth Anniversary—Society Dedicates Room 29 as "Enosinian Hall."

The Enosinian Literary Society will celebrate the hundredth anniversary of its founding with a banquet at the University Club December 11th, according to announcement by W. Waldo Girdner, president of the society. All persons wishing to attend this banquet are asked to communicate with the secretary, Miss Edith Elliott. Room 29 was officially dedicated as Enosinian Hall at the last meeting held November 20th. A plaque was given to the University to adorn the north wall of the room. Mr. Girdner, the president, read the dedication and Elmer Louis Kayser, secretary of the University, accepted for the school. Mr. Kayser mentioned the fact that Enosinian had had a career much like the University, inasmuch as it had gone through its ups and downs during its first hundred years and had excellent prospects for a successful second century. "The University looks upon this as a continuing body, and in congratulating you upon having reached your hundredth anniversary, wishes, in the words of Horace, that your 'Future may be good, pleasant, and fortunate.'"

AN OPEN LETTER

The University Hatchet:
The Pyramid Honor Society wishes to extend congratulations to those students of George Washington University who have banded themselves into the Gate and Key Society and hopes that the organization will enjoy success and permanency in the University.

Although its aims and ideals have been as yet, but partially divulged to the public, it is believed that there is a great field for such a society. Pyramid is an Honor Fraternity for seniors who have shown unusual interest in one or more of the University activities, and thus its membership comprises those men who have proven themselves leaders in the activities in which they have participated.

Gate and Key, in promoting good fellowship among fraternity men, should assist Pyramid materially in making George Washington a bigger and better University.

The Pyramid Honor Society.
By C. Melville Walker, Secretary.

BASKETBALL PRACTICE BEGINS AT COLISEUM DEC. 5

Varsity and Candidates Called Out—
First Game With Gallaudet
January 5.

Edwin S. Bettelheim, manager of Basketball, has called a meeting of all last year's players and all candidates for this year's Varsity team to meet December 5 for the opening practice at the Central Coliseum, at Ninth and Pennsylvania Avenue. Practice will start at this time and will be held twice each week, on Tuesdays and Fridays, until the Xmas Holidays, when practice will be held every night. The first game of the season is with Gallaudet on January 5.

The schedule is one of the largest the University has seen, and will include a southern trip during the second week in February and a number of side trips of one or two days' duration during the season. Ample opportunity will be afforded to candidates to win their "letters."

MEDIC FRATERNITY HELD SMOKER AT CITY CLUB

Alpha Kappa Kappa Medical Fraternity held its first smoker of the year last Friday evening at the City Club. The smoker proved very successful. Many alumni were present, in addition to regular members, neophytes, and invited guests.

The members of the fraternity opened the meeting for the others present by incorporating Senator-elect Bunk's concluding statement, "Have a cigar."

Speakers of the evening were Dr. E. W. Titus, prominent Gynecologist of the city and attending Gynecologist of the University Dispensary; Dr. Custis Lee Hall, Orthopedic Surgeon of the Dispensary; Dr. Tomas Cajigas, professor of Pathology; and Doctors Bradley and Tom Crisp.

Dr. Hall has only recently recovered from the effects of the Knickerbocker tragedy, and all the members were glad to see him and to welcome him back.

The evening was ended with an excellent buffet luncheon.

COUNTRY FAIR A SUCCESS

The Country Fair was a success. The Y. W. C. A. admits it, and wishes to thank everyone that had any part in putting it through. They extend thanks especially to the sororities that had booths and to the customers who patronized them.

What is most unusual, from a financial standpoint, it was all that could be desired. From a social standpoint, Dean Wilbur classed it as the most successful mixer ever held in the University.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES PLEDGE

The student body has at last realized the importance of the Activities Pledge and paid up, that only about 800 more pledges are needed to fill the required quota. And then all over and above that number will be real genuine school spirit, the kind that will whip Georgetown Thursday.

TWO FACULTY ELECTED TO HONORARY FRATERNITY

Director Student Activities and, Instructor in Journalism Initiated.

Bryan Morse, director of Student Activities, and Daniel C. Chace, instructor in Journalism, were initiated as honorary members of the Phi Delta Epsilon National Journalistic Fraternity at ceremonies held in Lisner Hall, Wednesday evening, November 22d.

Membership in Phi Delta Epsilon is conferred by reason of work on one or more of the University publications, and because of their active cooperation with the undergraduate staffs, Mr. Morse and Mr. Chace were elected as honorary members.

Mr. Morse graduated from Clarkson School of Technology in 1909, and studied in the Graduate Department of George Washington in 1910. He was quarterback on the Buff and Blue football team in 1909 and 1910. He was appointed to his present position as director of Activities in 1920. Mr. Morse has been with the sporting department of the Washington Times for the last twelve years, and is now sporting editor of the Washington Herald.

Mr. Chace is a graduate of Brown University, in the class of 1900. He took several prizes in his undergraduate study, and was later connected with the publicity bureau of the college. He was news editor of the Philadelphia Inquirer, later with the Providence Journal, and the Asheville (N. C.) Citizen. He is now with the editorial department of the Washington Evening Star.

GRAD NEWS OUT THIS WEEK

The first issue of the Alumni Quarterly will come from the press this week. This, a new publication, and one long needed by the University. It will contain the majority of the current news of the colleges contained in other school papers. The Quarterly will be mailed to all the members whose names and addresses can be obtained.

The Alumni Association is to hold a series of monthly get together luncheons, which will be described in the Quarterly. The first of these will be held Friday, December 8, at the Ebbitt House, at 1 o'clock; there will be talks not exceeding ten minutes, made at each of these. President Hodgkins will address the first meeting.

The cost will be one dollar, to be paid at the time of the luncheon. All members of the faculty and men holding degrees from the University are invited to be present.

LOCAL GRIDIRON STARS TO BE SEEN IN ACTION

Two Premier Ends, Ptak and Florence, to Play.

When the Buff and Blue meet the Blue and Gray Thursday afternoon the fur will fly, for it will be one of the best games between local schools, some of the most clever football players in the vicinity being seen in action.

In Jimmy Ptak, G. W. has one of the best receivers of a pass in the District, while his ability in breaking up interference is uncanny, and his tackles are deadly.

The enemy have a splendid end in Paul Florence, mentioned last year for all-American. He has been a thorn in opponents' offense.

Captain Comstock, of G. U., all South Atlantic guard and playing tackle, will be a hard man to gain through, but he has a worthy opponent in Buckheister.

At punting the Hilltoppers will equal G. W. if Flavin does the booting, but the home boys are liable to outkick the Hilltoppers if Flavin leaves the scene. Both Murphy and O'Keefe have been getting off some long punts this year.

ELECTIONS POSTPONED

Election of officers of the Seniors in Teachers College has been postponed.

At their meeting on Monday afternoon, November 27, Margaret Fravel was appointed chairman of a committee to ascertain the membership of the graduating class. Mrs. Debridge and Mrs. Sams are working with her, making the lists complete in order to call the meeting for elections.

Watch the Hatchet for the notice.

PLANS FOR TRACK YEAR OUTLINED BY BRYAN MORSE

Large Number of Veterans Back—Practice Will be Held at Coliseum.

Bryan Morse, director of Student Activities, addressed the largest number of track candidates that has ever turned out at the first meeting of the year held Thursday evening in Lisner Hall. He outlined the plans for the coming year, and expressed his opinion that this season would be George Washington University's greatest year for the track team.

Captain "Bunn" Tolson gave a short talk on what he expected the team to do this year. Manager Tracy told of the opponents that the team will be up against; expressed his desire that any other students having track experience turn out for the next practice.

Captain Tolson, who is the best man that George Washington has, is an all around athlete, being out for 220, 440, relay, javelin throw, discus, and broad jump. Among the rest of last year's men who are available are Harmon for the pole vault, Whitson in the relays, and Altrup out for the broad jump.

The schedule now awaits approval by the Student Council.

The Central Coliseum has been secured for indoor practice, which will begin this week.

DEBATERS UPHOLD BONUS

One of the most lively and interesting debates of the season upon the subject, "Resolved, That Congress enact legislation providing for adjusted compensation for veterans of the World War," was won by the affirmative team, composed of Messrs. McElroy, Knoch, and Chesnulls, before Columbian Debating Society, Friday evening. The negative argument was presented by Mr. McRay, Miss Levy, and Mr. Haycraft.

Individual first and second honors were awarded to Mr. Knoch and Mr. Chesnulls, respectively.

Due to the Thanksgiving holidays, the debate scheduled for Friday evening, December 1, has been postponed.

The subject for December 8, "Resolved, That the United States Government should subsidize an American Merchant Marine," will be debated on the affirmative by Messrs. Temin, Levinson, and Zirkle. The negative will be upheld by Messrs. Cleveland, Anderson, and Silva.

In view of the fact that the inter-collegiate try-out is to be held December 15, and possibly upon the same subject, it is predicted that this debate will be one of the best this season, and a large attendance is expected.

CHARTER TO ENGINEERS

The Civil Engineering students at George Washington University have been granted a student chapter by the American Society of Civil Engineers. Their first meeting under the new chapter was held at Kappa Omega Fraternity house on Monday evening, November 27. After the business meeting Prof. J. R. Lapham spoke on "The financing of engineering enterprises." Meetings will be held monthly, but definite plans for the winter program have not yet been formulated.

JUNIORS WILL MEET

The Junior Class of Columbia College will hold a meeting Wednesday, December 6, at 8 p. m., in room 1 of Lisner Hall. The main object of this meeting will be to discuss plans for the big December Mixer. The presence and the cooperation of every Junior is desired to make a big success of this mixer. The first plans for Junior week will be presented and discussed also, and it is hoped that definite announcements concerning these events can soon be given.

GRAND STAND SEATS FOR G. W. SUPPORTERS TODAY

Get Copy of Cheers—Then Use Them to Advantage!

All G. W. students and supporters of the University's football team, who wish to see the Quigleyites put their best into the game with the heavy Georgetown eleven Thanksgiving Day at American League Ball Park, should make it a point to find seats in the grand stand. That section of seats has been allotted the George Washington rooters, and it is the wish of Assistant Cheer Leaders Albert Foley and Leon Katz that every student take a seat in the grand stand and lend his voice in making the yells outdo those of the opponents.

The yells have been printed. Every rooter of the Buff and Blue team will be provided with one at the game Thursday. No special features for cheering the team have yet been arranged, but there is still a possibility of some demonstrations being planned.

A pep meeting was held Wednesday night, at which yells were practiced and plans made for giving the football players the hearty and concerted support of the entire student body.

COLUMBIAN WOMEN TO MEET

Justice Frederick L. Siddons, of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, will address the Columbian Women of George Washington University at their meeting on Tuesday, December 9, at 1719 I Street N. W. There will be a social period from 4 until 4.30, followed by the meeting.

The hostesses will be Mrs. Howard Lincoln Hodgkins, wife of the president of the University; Mrs. J. S. Tyree, Miss Elizabeth Peet, Mrs. DeWitt C. Croissant, Miss Emilie White, and Miss A. Louise Galeski.

A number of new members are expected to be present. All alumnae of the University and all girl students of at least two years' standing, are eligible to membership in the Columbian Women.

ECUADOREAN TO SPEAK

Senor Banda, of the Legation of Ecuador, will give an illustrated lecture on Ecuador, at 8 p. m. Thursday, December 7, 2017 G Street N. W., first floor rear, under the auspices of El Circulo Espanol.

Social hour afterwards in the Chapel.

PERSONAL

Miss Elizabeth Kendrick represented the colleges of Ohio, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, and the District of Columbia at the national Y. W. C. A. Council at New York last week.
